We invite you to celebrate the end of Black History Month and the beginning of Women’s History Month with a strong and provocative conversation on how women of color are changing the narrative and impacting culture through storytelling. Our esteemed panelists will include Maria Santana, Anchor & Correspondent, CNN, Angela Yee, Host of the nationally-syndicated radio show, The Breakfast Club and Chrishaunda Lee Perez, Writer & Producer. Each panelist will discuss how sharing their personal story has impacted their lives, their community and the world. All attendees will receive an autographed copy of Chrishaunda’s new book, We Come As Girls, We Leave As Women.
